The Howard Association, in view of the awful destruction of human life, caused by Sexual diseases, and the deceptions practised upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by quacks. several years ago directed their Consulting Surgeon as a charitable act, worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases, in all their forms, and to give Medical advice gratis, to all who apply by letter with a description of their condition, (age occupation, habits of life, &c.,) and in cases of extreme poverty, to furnish Medicines free of charge. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment. The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort, have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal. to this very important but much despised cause. Just published by the Association, a Report on Spermatorrhea, or Seminal Weakness, by the Consulting Surgeon, which will be sent by mail, (in a sealed letter envelope.) free of charge on receipt of two stamps for postage.

To the Independent Voters of the Town and County of Alexandria: - FELLOW CITIZENS .-As the election of County Officers is near at hand, and being before you as a candidate for the Sheriffalty, I think it due to you, as well as myself, that my position should be more distinctly understood. Yielding to the solicitation of many of my friends, without distinction of Delaware, Class M, for 1858, to be drawn party, I consented to become a candidate, on the express condition that my claims to the office should not be biased by party considerations, but that I should be left to occupy an independent position. I was impelled to this course from a thorough knowledge of the importance of the office, and having long been satisfied of the evils resulting to the public interest by the selection of incompetent men, because of their connection with some dominant party, I determined to rest my claims upon your judgment, rather than upon the endorsement of either of the political parties now in existence. At the time I announced myself a candidate, my intention was to see as many of the voters as possible, but 100 00 the position I now occupy precludes the possi-50 00 bility of my seeing you in person, and I shall 25 00 be compelled to rely upon your discrimination in the coming contest. If, in your judgment, the experience of thirty years of active com-OTTERY for the benefit of the State of mercial business, and a residence among you of Delaware, Class 115, for 1858, to be drawn over twenty years, entitle me to your support, I shall be thankful; and, if elected, will bring to the office the best of my ability in the discharge of its duties. The matter now rests with you,

To the Voters of Alexandria: - As some persons seem determined to misrepresent date for the Sheriffalty, I deem it due to myself to state, that such report (whether the offspring of "political trickery" or not.) is an unqualified falsehood-maliciously invented and secretly circulated, for the sole purpose of defeating my election. I now announce myself a candidate, and pledge myself to do my whole duty, it elected. [mh 4-eotE] JAMES SANGSTER.

At the solicitation of many citizens, offer myself as a candidate for the Sheriffalty of this County, at the ensuing May election, and can only promise (if elected,) to discharge the duties impartially to the best of my ability. R. CRUPPER. mh 22-th.

MISCELLANEOUS READING. SPRING WEATHER. It shines, it rains, Then shines again, What does the weather mean?
It hangs in doubt, The sun comes out, With drizzling mists between. Now dark, now light, Like day, like night, Tis changing, fickle weather, It mists at times, Then rains or shines, And sometimes all together. O! now I see. It is like me. A wise head and a dunce; I fret, I smile, Then cry awhile, And sometimes all at once. I pout, I pet, Well pleased I get, Both diligent and lazy, In my own way, Is such a day, When rainy, shiny, hazy. As the report that I have declined being a candi- the royal party came in view, all the troops stood at "attention," and when her Majesty had approached sufficiently near, the arms of the whole mass were presented at the salute, and the colors lowered with one simultaneous movement, that was most imposing. Her majesty, who was mounted on a dark chesnut charger, and wore a scarlet jacket and a general's plume of red and white feathers in her riding bat, then proceeded to inspect the force, riding slowly the whole extended front. On her right and left rode General Knollys and the Prince Consort, and a brilliant staff of officers, including the Quarter-Master and Adjutant General, followed her Mujesty and the open pony carriage, in which was the little Prince Arthur, in Highland costume.
